DENIES SOLICITING FUNDS

Former President Declares Before Senate Committee That Any Man Who Believed That He Would Receive Any Consideration From Making Any Contribution to Him Was Either a Crook or a Fool.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Theodore Roosevelt, for seven years president of the United States and candidate for re-election on the Progressive ticket, occupied a witness chair for three and a half hours before a senate investigating committee, defending his administration, himself and his campaign associates against what he termed "infamous charges" and "hearsay evidence." He appeared before the committee at his own request.

He put into the formal records of the committee a sweeping denial that he had ever solicited funds from any one while president, that any money had been received by the 1904 campaign committee with an expressed or implied promise of favors from the administration, that excessive funds had been used in his 1904 or in the 1908 campaign or that money had ever been improperly used in his behalf, so far as he knew.

The sessions of the committee were picturesque throughout. Colonel Roosevelt arrived at the committee room fully ten minutes before the hour of opening. His progress into the building was marked with cheers from a throng that surged through the corridors. Policemen kept a line of more than 1,000 persons in order, while a hundred or so occupied seats in the small committee room.

Colonel Roosevelt was placed in a chair on a little square platform from which he looked down upon the table at which sat Senators Clapp, Oliver, Pomerene and Paynter.

William Loeb, Jr., his former private secretary, now collector of customs at New York, came with him and occupied a seat at his left. The former president turned repeatedly to ask Mr. Loeb for facts and records; and at the end of his testimony Mr. Loeb himself later took the stand and corroborated statements Colonel Roosevelt had made.

Roosevelt Becomes Emphatic.

When Senator Pomerene asked if some corporations did not expect returns for their contributions Colonel Roosevelt declared emphatically:

"As a practical man of high ideals, who has always endeavored to put his high ideals into practice, I think any man who would believe that he would get any consideration from making any contributions to me was either a crook or a fool."

Colonel Roosevelt resumed the stand when the committee reconvened after lunch and Senator Paynter took up his examination.

The colonel reiterated his first knowledge of $100,000 contributions in 1904 by J. P. Morgan or George J. Gould came from the testimony of George R. Sheldon.

"I knew H. C. Frick had contributed heavily and was ready to contribute more," he said. "I did not know the amount. Mr. Knox had told me that Mr. Frick was one of my strongest backers."

"I had heard that there was a Standard Oil contribution," said the colonel, "but I did not know that it came from Mr. Archibald." He could not remember who told him.

Sensor Paynter called attention to Colonel Roosevelt's telegram of Oct. 27, 1904, to Mr. Cortelyou, asking that the Standard Oil contribution be returned "without delay."

"Did you understand that there had been a delay?" asked Senator Paynter. "I could not get any reply to my letters," said Colonel Roosevelt. "Mr. Cortelyou was out West, I think. I thought the money would be returned, but I wanted to make it clear that in my mind there was no doubt that the contribution should be returned."

PASSENGER TRAIN HELD UP

Three Masked Bandits Loot the Express Car.

Fort Smith, Ark., Oct. 5.—Three masked men held up and robbed north-bound Kansas City Southern passenger train No. 4 three miles northeast of Poteau, Okla., and, after opening two safes in the express car with nitroglycerin, escaped with a large quantity of loot, including registered mail.

The train was brought to a halt near Poteau by application of air brakes. Simultaneously two of the robbers made their appearance in the express and baggage car, forced the conductor, messenger, baggage man and conductor behind a pile of trunks and applied the explosive to the safes while another bandit stood guard outside.

Alleged Murderer Tries Suicide.

St. Paul, Oct. 5.—Ivan Wiskie, accused of the murder of Mrs. Anna Schuch at St. Paul, tried to commit suicide in his cell. He hacked his throat with a rusty nail, attempting to sever the jugular vein, and physicians fear he will die.

THINKS LACK OF
NEWS OMINOUS

London Receives Only Two Dispatches From Balkans.

SHOWS CENSORSHIP ACTIVE

Only Hopeful Sign Is That Diplomatic Relations Still Remain Unbroken. Rumors That Turkey Has Made Peace With Italy Has Some Influence on the Allies—Turkish People Art United in Patriotic Fervor.

London, Oct. 5.—The wires from the near Eastern capitals are ominously reticent or altogether silent. A brief dispatch announcing that railway traffic had been stopped between Constantinople and Mustapha Pasha and Dodegahatch and confirmation of the news that Bulgarians had crossed the Turkish frontier was practically all the information of a military nature received in London and shows that the telegraphic censorship is active.

One hopeful sign, however, is the fact that diplomatic relations still remain unbroken and apparently no ultimatum has been delivered or a declaration of war made. Therefore diplomacy still has time to act in the interests of peace.

At present the European negotiations looking to peace are centered in Paris, but it still seems to be undecided whether action in this direction shall be taken by a concert of the European powers as a whole or by Austria and Russia as the representatives of Europe. It is believed difficulty is being found in reconciling the views of the situation held by Austria and Russia. Although a more hopeful opinion of averting war prevailed it is thought that, unless the powers act promptly, it may be too late to prevent an explosion.

The persistent reports that Turkey and Italy had arranged peace are believed to have had some influence on the Serbian, Bulgarian, Montenegrin and Greek allies, who, it is assumed, will not be so anxious to tackle Turkey when she is free from the embarrassment of a war with a great power.

Bulgaria Modifies Demands. In this connection it is now announced by the Bulgarian legation here that Bulgaria's demand is for Macedonian autonomy under the surveillance of the powers, similar to that existing in Crete. The original demand was for complete autonomy for all the Turkish provinces in Europe.

Turkey, on the other hand, has become less docile. With her hands virtually free from the Italian war and her people united in patriotic fervor to defend their fatherland she appears bent on settling the Balkan question once for all by means of war. This explains the frequency of the visits of the Turkish ambassador to the British foreign office, where he was summoned and had a long conference with Sir Edward Grey, the British secretary of state for foreign affairs.

The Ottoman government also had taken further warlike steps, such as the suspension of railway communication with Serbia and the concentration of troops on the frontier. It has instituted a censorship on telegrams, official or otherwise.

The armies of the Balkan states, especially those out of reach of the capitals, are proceeding to their allotted bases.

All the horses in Constantinople have been requisitioned by the government for the army. The government has ordered the withdrawal of the Turkish troops from the island of Samos and the prince-governor will also leave the island temporarily.

MARSHALL ECHOES WILSON

Attacks Colonel on His Record While in White House.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 5.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic vice presidential nominee, declared here that, although Theodore Roosevelt had been in the White House for more than seven years, he had never done anything for the relief of the American people and in the coming election he should be judged by the past, not by what he promised.

Roosevelt was scored time and again by the governor, who spoke at length upon the economic system in this country.

WILSON TOURS IN INDIANA

Covers Great Portion of State in Special Train.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Governor Woodrow Wilson made a strenuous campaign sweep through Indiana, covering a great portion of the state in a special train and making six set speeches before large crowds. He reached Chicago at nightfall, spent two hours with Joseph E. Davies, secretary of the national committee, and members of the Western headquarters and continued his trip to Omaha and Lincoln, Neb. At the latter place he will meet William Jennings Bryan for the first time since the Baltimore convention.

OSCAR STRAUS COMING WEST

Progressive Big Guns Also to Be Heard in Wisconsin.

New York, Oct. 5.—Oscar S. Straus, Progressive candidate for governor of New York, will make a Western speaking tour in the near future, it was announced at Progressive headquarters here. It is planned to have Jacob Riis accompany him. Mr. Straus, after finishing his tour of New York state will visit Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis and other cities in the Western section. A complete itinerary has not been arranged.

It was also announced that speakers will be sent to Wisconsin by the Progressive party at an early date. The list, as far as arrangements have been made, includes Gifford Pinchot, Judge Ben B. Lindsey, Senator Joseph L. Bristow and Francis J. Heney.

JOHNSON QUOTES
WILSON ON LABOR

Cites Democratic Nominee's Speech at Princeton in 1909.

Binghamton, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Governor Johnson in an address here attempted to show his audience that Governor Wilson's present attitude toward union labor is not the same that he took in 1909 while connected with Princeton university. The California executive said in part:

"I read the other day in a Massachusetts newspaper friendly to the Democratic candidate for president his utterances in New England in reference to the right of labor to organizing to express a great sympathy with union labor. Vividly there came to me the words of the Democratic candidate uttered at the Princeton commencement in 1909. He then said: 'The tendency of the modern labor union is to give employers as little labor as possible for the amount they receive. No one is suffered to do more than the average workman can do. No one may work out of hours at all or volunteer anything beyond the minimum. I need not point out to you how economically disastrous such a regulation of labor is. It is so unprofitable to the employer that in some grades it will presently not be worth while to attempt anything at all—our economic supremacy may be lost because the country grows more and more full of unprofitable service.'"

LINER STRIKES SUBMARINE

Fifteen British Officers and Men Perish in Collision.

Dover, Eng., Oct. 5.—Fifteen officers and men of the British navy were drowned by the sinking of the submarine B-2 after she had been cut in two by the Hamburg-American liner Amerika off the coast of Kent.

The commander of the little vessel, Lieutenant Percy B. O'Brien, was among the victims, but his second in command, Lieutenant Richard I. Pulleyne, was rescued after being a long time in the water. He was the sole survivor. Picked up by submarine B-16 he gasped:

"We were cut in two. I sank a mile." Then he collapsed.

BRYAN DENOUNCES MORGAN

Nebraska Styles the Financier as "Patriot No. 2."

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 5.—J. P. Morgan, the financier, came in for scathing denunciation in William J. Bryan's trip across Central Kansas. From Lindsay, when he began the day, to Wichita, where he ended, Bryan kept up a steady attack upon Mr. Morgan and characterized him as "Patriot No. 2." In all the Nebraska delivered ten speeches.

"Perkins is Patriot No. 1," said Mr. Bryan in his address at Lindsay. "I assign second place to Mr. Morgan, the distinguished financier, who will, therefore, enter the cell of the public memory as Patriot No. 2."

OVERCONFIDENCE
IS DANGEROUSOne Factor That May Upset
Political Calculations.

DEMOCRATS SEE VICTORY.

But Reliance Upon Republican Split May Make Them Careless—Senators Avoid Gubernatorial Nominations Campaign Fund Investigation Will Not Stop With the Election.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 5.—[Special.]—Overconfidence is looming large upon the Democratic horizon just now as the one thing which may upset all calculations. "Our campaign is made for us by the bull moose entering the race," was a remark by Oscar W. Underwood, the house leader, just before the adjournment of congress. It would seem that many Democrats are largely relying upon the split in the Republican party to insure victory, but there are others who fear that the confidence of the party may make them careless from this time until the election. Still others fear that the election will be thrown into the house, depriving them of a possible victory.

The Congressional Campaign.

James T. Lloyd, chairman of the Democratic congressional campaign committee, is back in Washington after giving some attention to home affairs. Lloyd has no doubt whatever of success this year in the congressional fight. He thinks that wherever there is a Republican and Progressive running in the same district it means the election of a Democrat. There are many such cases in districts now represented by Republicans of both the regular and insurgent stripe.

Lloyd's committee has a force of sixty or more at work in the headquarters here, sending out literature, speeches which were delivered in congress, etc. The force also answers calls for records of members on votes and other matters which will have some effect on the voters in the campaign.

Clapp's Campaigning.

Senator Clapp was asked if he was doing any campaigning, the supposition being that he could not get away on account of his duties with the investigating committee.

"Oh, I get out in the nearby cities and towns for a night's talk occasionally," replied the Minnesota senator.

"Still preaching your heresies?" questioned Senator Pomerene, who is also an investigator.

"Heresies?" snorted the Minnesota senator. "If you could see the way the people take them you would think the whole country was becoming heretic. Why, one could keep an audience on its feet all the time cheering the policies of the Progressives and their leader."

When Senators Shy.

When conventions come around and offer senators nominations for governorships it is almost sure that they will wiggle out of the honor if they can. There are a lot of former governors in the senate, but there are mighty few governors who have been senators. It was natural that Root should keep the nomination for himself and that O'Gorman should do the same. These New York senators did not want to become governor, nor they did not want to be nominated.

Many years ago, when David B. Hill was in the senate, he went up to New York to run a Democratic state convention. He ran it, all right; was pretty much the whole thing. In fact, then all at once the convention, like Frankenstein, turned around and swallowed him. It nominated him for governor and made him take it.

Looks All Right From Kentucky.

Ollie James was about to depart for a speaking tour in the west. "It looks so easy," he said, "that it seems hardly worth while to get down to real hard work. Why, down in Kentucky they are already preparing to attend Wilson's inauguration."

"The Biggest Show."

This is the season of new theatrical attractions, but we have the biggest show in the country right here in Washington. The demand for seats for the investigation where Roosevelt and others were testifying was greater than at any of the playhouses either here or elsewhere, so far as I have been able to discover.

"I suppose you will keep right along until election?" I asked Senator Clapp.

"Yes, and a long time after," was the reply. "We are not running an adjunct to a campaign and won't stop with the election. This show will continue until all the testimony is in that we can find bearing on the subject of campaign expenditures."

Rucker Suspicious.

Congressman Rucker of Colorado, who thinks that his party has been against him on the tariff legislation, was trying to arrange for time to address the house. Congressman Lamb was trying to make an arrangement covering the time of the debate. "You can't object," he said to Rucker, "to my giving the other side part of my own time."

"But you may steal that time from me," said Rucker, who thinks that the house might do anything to a Colorado Democrat these days.

PUTS MCGOVERN ON GRILL

La Follette Says Switch to Bull Moose Has "Muzzled Him Up."

Madison, Wis., Oct. 5.—"Since the last issue of La Follette's, McGovern has plunged bodily into the Roosevelt tar barrel," says Senator La Follette in the leading editorial of his magazine. Under the title, "McGovern," the senator discusses Governor McGovern's alliance with the Bull Moose party as follows:

"If anything were needed to interpret the true significance of his course at Chicago his action at this time is quite conclusive. The act was performed with bravado. But it would have been a finer example of courage to have taken his high dive before he was safely nominated. It 'muzzled him up' shockingly as a progressive Republican candidate for governor of Wisconsin. But in the face of even greater misfortunes than this the Wisconsin progressive cause has survived and steadily advanced."

TAFT STARTS OUT ON SIX-DAY AUTO TRIPTime Will Be Spent in Vermont
and New Hampshire.

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 5.—The summer capital officially will be a lonely place for the next two weeks. President Taft has left on a six-day automobile trip through Vermont and New Hampshire and will rest in Beverly only a few hours on his return before he boards the Mayflower to review in New York the biggest fleet ever assembled in American waters.

The return from New York will be made by way of Worcester, Mass., where he has a speaking engagement Oct. 16, and the president will have only ten days more vacation in Beverly before he journeys southward for the winter. Mrs. Taft will accompany the president on practically all of these trips and, while Miss Helen Taft will be at Paramatta for several days, the president's cottage will be comparatively quiet for a fortnight.

The president and Mrs. Taft left Beverly at 8 a. m. on the trip to Vermont and New Hampshire. It will cover more than 400 miles. Miss Mabel Boardman and Major T. L. Rhoades, the president's personal aide and physician, will be their only guests.

TURKS ARE EAGER TO FIGHT

Sentiment in Favor of War is Rapidly Increasing.

Constantinople, Oct. 5.—Sentiment in favor of war is increasing in Turkey. Several thousand persons held a mass meeting in the Mosque of Sultan Ahmed I., at Stamboul, at which all references to the Balkan states were greeted with cries of "Cursed be Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Montenegro."

Several leaders of the Liberal party, who addressed the meeting, declared that Turkey was ready to face all her foes. Later the crowd marched to the palace, where they made another demonstration in favor of war.

Hostile demonstrations against the Italian embassy and the Bulgarian and other Balkan legations were renewed by the populace.

Detroit Judge Frens Seven Accused
City Fathers.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 5.—Justice E. J. Jeffries dismissed the cases against seven of the seventeen aldermen charged with conspiracy to defraud the city in connection with closing a street for the benefit of a railroad.

The other ten aldermen were bound over to the recorder's court for trial. Former Councilman Clerk Edward Schreier, charged with the same offense, also was held to the higher court.

INDICTS ROAD AND MILLING COMPANYFederal Grand Jury Charges
Violation of Law.

Minneapolis, Oct. 5.—The initial step in an action which may involve many of the great grain carrying railroads and shippers of the Northwest as parties to an alleged extensive violation of the interstate commerce laws governing shipments was taken when the federal grand jury returned indictments against the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie Railway company and P. G. Sands of Minneapolis, its general freight agent, and the Russell-Miller Milling company.

The indictments charge that the railway company, through its agent, granted concessions to the Russell-Miller Milling company of Minneapolis, which enabled the milling company to receive flour from mills in North Dakota at 4 cents per hundred pounds less than the lawful rate from such points to Minneapolis. The railway company is indicted as the carrier giving the concession and the milling company as the alleged receiver of the concession.

WILL RESENT INTERVENTION

Porte Regards Such an Offer as an Unfriendly Act.

London, Oct. 5.—A dispatch to the Daily Express from Constantinople asserts the porte has declared that it would reject any proffer of European intervention for a settlement of the Balkan question and would regard such a proffer as an unfriendly act.

There is a strong feeling in Constantinople that Turkey should issue an ultimatum of her own instead of waiting for Serbia, Bulgaria, Montenegro and Greece to send one to her, says a dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from the Turkish capital.

Chicago Prosecutor Asks for Key to Commission Report.

CASE GOES OVER TO MONDAY

Identities of Resort Keepers Who Furnished Information to the Commission Which Was Made Public About Two Years Ago Are Concealed Through the Medium of Numerals in Place of Names.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—The crusade against vice in Chicago, conducted by State's Attorney John E. Wayman, took a startling turn when at the request of the state's attorney Judge Henry C. Moran of the municipal court issued subpoenas duces tecum for the production of the key to the report of the vice commission, which was made public about two years ago. The key has since remained in the archives of the commission.

When the report of the commission was published it contained much information of a startling nature regarding vice conditions in the various levee districts of the city. Many inmates and resort keepers furnished most of this information, their identities being numerals in place of names. In order to have the benefit of this information the subpoenas were issued against Dean Walter F. T. Sumner of St. Peter and Paul cathedral and Edwin W. Sims, former United States district attorney. Mr. Sims was the secretary of the commission.

In response to the subpoena Mr. Sims appeared in Judge Moran's court and made a vigorous effort to prevent the production of the vice report key. He explained that when the commission disbanded in 1910 the key, which virtually is a directory of all the owners, keepers, disorderly hotels and their inmates in the city, was placed in the hands of a committee of five, of which he is a member.

Mr. Sims went on to explain that the information was not obtained for the purpose of prosecution, but that the commission made a private investigation to ascertain vice conditions in the city. It finally was agreed that Mr. Sims should speak to the other members of his commission to see if they are willing the key should be given to the prosecutor's office.

It was urged by Assistant State's Attorney Arnold that in view of the fact that the key contained the names of all the property owners who lease their property for immoral purposes it was desired by the prosecutor's office so that evidence may be obtained on which prosecution may be based.

"The evidence is in existence and we have a right to use it as long as the defendants do not have to take the stand against themselves," said Mr. Arnold. "We want to use it in all the cases where it will be admissible as evidence."

Judge Moran terminated the argument by continuing the case until Monday, when, if the commission still is determined not to release the key, legal arguments would have to be made.

FIXES TITANIC LIABILITY

Federal Judge Places Damage Claim
Limit at $96,000.

New York, Oct. 5.—The limit liability for the owners of the steamship Titanic, which sank April 15, was set at $96,000, as compared with claims for damages which aggregate more than $1,000,000.

The limit was set by Judge Hough of the United States district court upon petition of the Oceanic Steam Navigation company, limited, which owned the vessel. The company furnished bond for the amount as security for paying the claims pro rata rate.

The commissioners explained to the court that the company's interest in the vessel was limited to the fourteen lifeboats recovered, prepaid passage money amounting to $85,212 and freight amounting to $2,073.

READS CHECK STUBS TO JURY

Prosecutor Says They Show Explanations Were Paid For.

Indianapolis, Oct. 5.—Extracts from a little green check book, in which, it is charged, the executive board of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers kept an account of money paid out for dynamiting jobs, were read at the trial of the defendants in the alleged dynamite conspiracy.

District Attorney Charles W. Miller told the jury that the executive board met regularly and appropriated money for the expense of explosives. The money, he asserted, was paid by checks signed by President Frank M. Ryan. One of the stubs read "Expenses for organization purposes, $233 at Clinton, Ia."

Suspend Freight Rate Raise.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Increases in class freight rates by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, averaging about 10 per cent and applying generally throughout the Northwest, were suspended by the interstate commerce commission until April 8, 1913. An investigation of the proposed raise is in progress.

BASEBALL, NOT POLITICS

Country so Prosperous, People Paying
No Attention to any Political Contests

In all the history of Brainerd less attention is being paid to the coming presidential election campaign than at any other period of its history.
Mugsy McGraw's New York Giants and Jake Stahl's Red Sox and their respective merits will get up more of an argument in a barber shop than Taft, Wilson, Roosevelt, or the other candidates.

People are so prosperous, jobs are so plentiful, business is so booming that it is absolutely impossible to devote time to politics.

Meeting of Republican Nominees

Under the new primary law the nominees for the state legislature and the several county officers "shall meet on the first Tuesday after said primary election at the court house in their respective counties, at twelve o'clock noon, at which time they shall elect a county committee of such size as they shall, at said time, determine, and shall provide for the selection of such precinct and voter committees within their respective counties as they shall determine to be necessary."

No meeting so far has been held as required by the new law, by the Republican nominees in this county, though the law has been very generally complied with elsewhere.

As a member of the Republican state central committee, therefore, I hereby call a meeting of the Republican nominees for county offices in Crow Wing county, to be held at the court house, on Monday afternoon, October 7, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of naming a county committee as called for in the law referred to.
A full attendance is urgently requested.

Member State Central Committee.

SUPERIOR TO CINCH TITLE

Makes Claim of Being World's Greatest Ore Shipping Port in 1913.
Says Superior Telegram

N. P. RY. TO BUILD ORE DOCK

In the Vicinity of the Great Northern Docks at a Cost of $500,000

Superior's claim to being the greatest ore shipping port in the world will be established beyond dispute next season when the additional ore shipping facilities which are to be provided here this winter are completed, says the Superior Telegram.

The paper describes the various improvements to be made by the Great Northern, Soo and Northern Pacific railways.

The Northern Pacific road will build an ore dock just across the Nemadji river from the present Great Northern ore docks. The Great Lakes Dredge and Dock company is already doing the dredging and preliminary work for the structure. The company's plans call for three docks to be erected eventually, but only one will be built this year for the handling of the ore from the Cuyuna iron range next season.

The Soo line will erect a $150,000 addition to the ore dock on St. Louis bay. The addition will be 600 feet long and will increase the capacity of the dock 50 percent.

The Soo has just completed the construction of three miles of trackage in its ore yards south of Twenty eighth street and west of the Great Northern yards.

The Northern Pacific will use its Stinson avenue yards for handling the ore business. This will necessitate enlarging the yards to a considerable extent. The work will probably not be started until early next season.

PRESIDENT OF GLEE CLUB

Fred Dubois, Formerly of City, Is Elected by Men's Club of University of North Dakota

Fred Dubois, a former Brainerd boy has been given the high honor at the University of North Dakota of being elected president of the Men's Glee club of the university. Mr.
Dubois is a member of the senior class in the college of medicine. He graduated from the Brainerd high school in 1909.

The position of president of the glee club is a much coveted position in the university musical circles. It comes as a reward for Mr. Dubois' work in the glee club for the past three years.

The Grand Forks Daily Herald states: Fred Dubois was elected as president of the Men's Glee club at the university at the regular rehar-sal, the other officers named being the following:

Vice President—Clarence Finch.
Secretary—Oscar Baarson.
Treasurer—Will C. Bacon.
Librarian—F. B. Farrow.

The manager has begun negotiations for another successful trip through the state to be given in all probabilities during the spring vacation. The material for the club seems promising although Mr. Norton says he can use more first tenors.
New material is being tried at each rehearsal.

"The Student," published by the students of the university, also contains flattering references to the work of Mr. Dubois.

Olson-Cain

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs.
George R. Cain, on Friday evening,
October 4th, when their daughter,
Miss Myrtle Cain was united in marriage to Mr. Henry A. Olson, the son of Mrs. Hannah Olson. Rev. R. E.
Cody, pastor of the First Baptist church performed the pleasing ceremony.

The bride was attired in a charming and pretty gown of white charmeuse with overdrape of crepe de chene and Irish lace. The bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Ruby Cain, who was dressed in white voile trimmed with cluny lace. The best man was Ben Olson, a brother of the groom.

The wedding march was played by Miss Nettie Angel and immediately after the ceremony, while the wedding supper was served, music was rendered by Miss Nettie Angel, with two vocal solos by a sister of the bride,
Mrs. Willard Osborne, of Page, N.
D., and a violin solo by Miss Effie Drexler. The rooms of the home at 1094 Fir street were handsomely decorated with autumn leaves and white asters and carnations.

The bride is well known in the city and attended school here. The groom is an exemplary young man and employed in the auditing department of the Minnesota & International railway. They left last night on a wedding trip to Minneapolis.

The out of town guests included
Rev. and Mrs. Willard Osborne, of Page, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Olson will make their home at 811 Fir street and will be at home to their friends after October 20. Their many friends wish them much happiness and prosperity, a wish in which The Dispatch heartily joins.

WANT BIG LAND OWNERS TO DRILL

Many Mining Men in and About Deer-selves Claiming They SHOULD DEVELOP THE COUNTRY

Cuyuna Northern Railway Work—Social Items of Deerwood and its Vicinity

Deerwood, Minn., October 4—Many of the mining men of Deerwood and vicinity have expressed regrets that large land holding companies should absolutely refuse to develop their properties, to lease or to sell them.
Some of these companies own large parcels of land throughout the county. When they sell a piece they reserve the mineral rights. They do nothing to keep pace with the development work carried on throughout the Cuyuna range, and the greater part of this is done by the small operators. All these land companies do is to sit still while the small farmer of Crow Wing county and the small drill owner and mine operator develop sections of country and incidentally assist to explore and develop the neighboring parcels of land tied up by the land company. In this age of doing something, people feel like yelling into the ears of such a land company: "For goodness sakes, wake up and do something. Don't let your neighbors do it all while you rake in the increased valuation your property derives from the exertions of your neighbors."

The Cuyuna Northern railway work train makes its headquarters at Deer-wood and quite a little money is spent in the town by the men. It will be but a short time until the ore trains commence to rattle past Deerwood on their way to the iron ore docks at Superior.

COUNTRY COUSIN.

Many Driven From Home

Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs, make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists. Its Adv.

She—I think we should be able to live nicely on $3,000 a year. He—But my salary is only $2,000. She—I know it, dear, but my clothes come to $1,000 a year, and I have enough now to last for the first twelve months.

WHAT'S AHEAD OF YOU? Doesn't it surprise and alarm you when you think how slowly you're advancing in salary and position, considering how hard you have to work to hold your job?

But it's different if you have the special training that enables you to win a good position at work you like—to earn more money—and to achieve still greater success. It's all a matter of right training, and you will get the right training in the

The Men Who Succeed

As heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders, and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists. Deceiving the Evil Spirit. The blacks in Australia have a very curious way of burying their dead. The grave is so constructed that the "evil spirit," coming to claim a body, shall find it without a tenant.

It is dug very wide and deep, and one side is excavated so as to form a shelf on which the corpse reposes in a sitting posture with hands clasped about knees. A boomerang is always placed within easy reach of the dead one's hand, and a sheet of bark is always arranged most carefully between the shelf and the grave. After the grave has been filled in a mound of sticks is raised over it to protect the body from wild animals—Philadelphia North American.

A BILLION DOLLAR CROP.

Northwest Harvest Will Net $160,000,000 Over Last Year.

The value of the crops and live stock products of the farms of Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, northern Iowa, Montana and western Wisconsin this year will aggregate a billion dollars, according to careful estimates made by the Farmer. The publication also looks forward to the biggest demand for machinery and supplies in the history of the northwest.

It is estimated that the farmers of the Dakotas, Minnesota and Montana are harvesting field crops worth $550,000,000 at present. If this estimate is true the year's earnings will show an increase of $100,000,000 over the crop value for this section in 1911.

Where the Danger Lay.

An English clergyman says that when he came to a certain place as vicar he asked whether there were any sick to be visited.

"Oh, no, sir," was the answer. "No body is ever ill in Berrybarber. There is an old man, to be sure, over ninety, who has taken lately to his bed, but there hasn't much the matter with him that I know of."

"I thought to myself," added the vicar, "if the story of the Scotchman who said to his doctor:

"Ye put a verra long face, doctor. I've think I'm dangerously ill?"

"Na, na," was the reply. "I don't think ye're dangerously ill, but I think ye're dangerously old."

Life Sentence.

"Toverty's no crime."

"It ain't? Then why is it punishable by hard labor?"—Cleveland Leader.

Everywhere We Hear Good Reports of Doan's Kidney Pills

Brainerd is no exception. Every of the U. S. resounds with praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. Thirty thousand persons are giving testimony in their home newspapers. The sincerity of these witnesses, the fact that they live so near, is the best proof of the merit of Doan's. Here's a Brainerd case.

Mrs. C. Sundberg, 1524 E. Pine St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have earned my grateful endorsement. I suffered for several years from backache and it not only made me uncomfortable while doing my work, but also kept me from getting my proper rest at night. I was sometimes distressed by dizzy spells and often my feet and ankles were swollen. The doctors said I had kidney complaint but their medicine failed to help me. A few months ago I was told about Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box at H. P. I have had but little pain in my back and have been stronger and better able to do my work. If my experience will be the means of helping other kidney sufferers, I am glad to tell a public account of it." (Statement given August 31, 1908.)

RE-ENDORSEMENT

Several years later Mrs. Sundberg was interviewed and she said: "I can still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills in the highest terms. This remedy has certainly been of the greatest benefit to me and it will always have my hearty praise."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, sole agents for the United States.
